

I urge the commission to adopt RM-10868 without delay. While the revision of article S 25 removes the requirement of morse telegraphy skills for high frequency operation, The WRC has left it up to individual member countries to decide whether it stays or goes. We need to keep the standards high and Element 1 Morse telegraphy needs to be retained for the general and extra class.

Brian Pawloski W8BRI